6.2.2 - The functioning of the institutional bodies is effective and efficient as visible from policies, administrative setup, appointment and service rules, procedures, etc.

Submitted to

The National Assessment and Accreditation Council

The institutional bodies of J.D.S.G. College, Bokakhat, function effectively and efficiently, ensuring smooth governance through well-defined policies, an organized administrative setup, transparent appointment and service rules, and systematic procedures. The college follows structured decision-making processes, with committees overseeing academics, administration, and student affairs. Regular meetings, adherence to government and university regulations, and proactive implementation of policies contribute to the institution's overall efficiency and accountability.
