

Constitution Day Observation, 2023

The Constitution Day, 2023 was observed by IQAC, Department of Political Science, Students' Union in association Kaziranga Study Circle on 25th November 2023. In the very beginning, Dr. Jayanta Gogoi, Principal of the college welcomed all with a warm speech focusing on the importance of the day. After the welcome address, Dr. Jayanta Das, Coordinator, IQAC delivered his speech on the occasion highlighting the key aspects of the constitution. His speech was followed by another speech by Sri Dhrubajyoti Saha from the Kaziranga Study Circle. On the occasion, invited speaker Sri Sasanka Dhaval Saikia, Assistant Professor in Political Science, J.D.S.G. College delivered his lecture focusing mainly on the making of the Indian Constitution. The speech mainly dealt with how it evolved and developed through various incidents and finally adopted and enforced in the independent India. The programme was attended by as many as 75 students along with several faculty members namely Dr. Santi Saya Boruah, Sri Prasanta Saikia, Sri Amar Morang from department of Political Science and Sri Chandra Kanta Das from Education department.

