

Report on Field Study on “People’s Participation in Lok Sabha Elections” 2024

A field study on the topic “People’s Participation in Lok Sabha Elections, 2024” was conducted by the department of Political Science, J.D.S.G. College, Bokakhat in two Gram Panchayats and two Municipal Wards of Bokakhat Assembly Constituency on 14th May 2024. As many as Four teams visited the stipulated areas and collected data through questionnaires. For each team a faculty member of the department was attached. The objective of the field study was to acquaint the students with the electoral politics and voting behaviour. Each team collected data from as many as 50 households and the total households stood at 200. The students prepared a project based on the data collected and submitted to the department.

