

Report on Street Play on the theme “Beti Bachao, Beti Padhao Campaign”

A street play on the theme “Beti Bachao, Beti Padhao Campaign” was organized by the department of Political Science, J.D.S.G. College, Bokakhat on 29th September 2023. The Play was performed by students of the college at two places namely J.D.S.G. College campus and Public Bus Stand, Bokakhat. The objective of the play was to make students aware of the campaign and its significance worldwide in general and India in particular. Hundreds of students and public witnessed the performance of the students in the two places. The necessity and relevance of girl education was the key component of the play. An effort had been made to make people aware of the greater goal of both equality and equity among all.
