Organised by the NSS Unit, JDSG College, Bokakhat

Date: 9 October 2026

Time: 12:00 PM – 3:00 PM

Venue: Digital Classroom–1, JDSG College, Bokakhat

The NSS Unit of JDSG College, Bokakhat, organised the “Nasha Mukta Yuva – Yuva Sanwad Mela” on 9 October 2026 at Digital Classroom–1, as part of the Nasha Mukta Yuva for Viksit Bharat Sankalp Abhiyan. The programme aimed to create awareness among young people about the harmful effects of substance abuse and to encourage youth participation in building a healthy, responsible and drug-free society.

The programme commenced with an introduction by the anchor-Parswa Jyoti Neog, Assistant Professor, Dept. of Economics, followed by the welcome of the dignitaries to the dais. The dignitaries included Dr. Jayanta Gogoi, Principal of JDSG College; Nitumoni Deka, Counsellor, PHE, Bokakhat; Ratneswar Baruah, Chairman, Bokakhat Municipality; Prasanta Saikia, Vice-Principal; Motiram Das, NSS Programme Officer; Dr. Monalisha Borgohain, IQAC Coordinator; and Dr. Bichitra Hira, Secretary, Teacher Unit. The programme proceeded with the State Anthem and the felicitation of the dignitaries.

Motiram Das, Programme Officer, NSS Unit-I, explained the objectives of the programme, highlighting the importance of youth engagement, awareness and collective responsibility in preventing substance abuse. The Principal and Vice-Principal delivered the welcome address, followed by an address by the resource person, Nitumoni Deka, and the invited guest, Ratneswar Baruah, Chairman of Bokakhat Municipality.

The programme also featured cultural performances by students, including a Borgeet by Tridip Jyoti Borah of B.Com. 1st Semester, poem recitation by Aimee Borah, a Jhumur song by Deep Robidas of B.A. 3rd Semester, and a song by Karuna Das of B.A. 1st Semester, Department of Economics. These performances added cultural significance to the programme and provided a platform for students to participate actively.

Student representatives also shared their views during the programme. The speakers included British Pegu, President of the Students’ Union, 2026–27; Ruhit Kurmi, Secretary of the Students’ Union, 2026–27; Abinash Borah of B.A. 5th Semester; Anjali Kumari Yadav of B.A. 1st Semester, Department of Economics; Akankha Konwor of B.A. 3rd Semester, Department of English; and Binud Engti of B.A. 1st Semester. Their participation highlighted the role of students in promoting awareness and encouraging their peers to remain free from substance abuse.

A notable aspect of the programme was the participation of four persons from Kalakhowa Gaon, the adopted village of the NSS Unit. Their presence strengthened the connection between the college and its adopted village and reflected the importance of community participation in spreading awareness about substance abuse prevention.

The programme concluded with the vote of thanks delivered by Prasanta Saikia, Vice-Principal and NSS Programme Officer, followed by the National Anthem.

A total of 53 persons participated in the programme, including students, college authorities, invited dignitaries and representatives from the adopted village, Kalakhowa Gaon. The participation reflected a collective commitment towards raising awareness about substance abuse prevention and promoting the vision of a healthy and drug-free society.

Overall, the Nasha Mukta Yuva – Yuva Sanwad Mela provided a platform for interaction among students, college authorities, invited dignitaries and community members. The programme reinforced the importance of youth leadership, cultural engagement and community participation in the collective effort to build a healthy and drug-free society in alignment with the vision of Viksit Bharat.
